JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

KIRK.

BIOGRAPHY OF THE COMMANDER OF HOLDEN'S NORTH CAROLINA ARMY—THE MAN THE PRESIDENT IS BACKING.

[From the New York World.]

TO THE EDITOR OF THE WORLD.

SIR: Much has been said by the press in regard to the state of affairs in North Carolina, but no one can have any idea of the condition of the citizens without being acquainted with the antecedents of Colonel George W. Kirk, commander of the State troops.

At the outbreak of the war, the Kirks espoused the Union cause, and finally fled to the mountains of East Tennessee, and commenced a guerilla warfare on the their own hook. Immediate death was meted out to all rebels or personal enemies who chanced to fall into Captain Kirk's clutches. Hearing of General Burnside's approach, Kirk assembled his mountaineers, and reported. General Burnside authorized a member of his staff and Kirk to raise a regiment to be known as the Second North Carolina Mounted Infantry. A battalion was raised, and Captain Smith, of the Fifth Indiana Cavalry, was appointed lieutenant colonel commanding, and Kirk captain of A company. This turn of affairs displeased Kirk, and he soon went back to his old guerrilla kind of warfare, serving as a guide, and soon had about two hundred men assembled in Knoxville, Tenn., when he was authorized to raise a regiment to be known as the Third North Carolina Mounted Infantry. During the time he was recruiting he made several excursons into North Carolina, but finally the general commanding the district of East Tennessee refused to allow him to go out of the lines attended by any force as so many reports came in of lynching, robbing and general misdeeds committed by him and his men, not only outside but also within our lines. Colonel Kirk's regiment being nearly full, and having been without pay for some time, an attempt was made to muster them into the service of the United States; but it took a long time to do it, as scarce a man could write his name, and the Colonel could hardly do any better. After the muster was effected the regiment made several forays, which were eminently successful in committing outrages on the citizens, but of little else. Col. Kirk never kept a decent camp, or had his men under discipline or drill.—At one time the regiment went on an expedition with General Ammen and General Gillem towards the Watauga river, when the following incident occurred, which fully illustrates the character of Kirk and most of his men: About nightfall the whole force came to camp, and the Third North Carolina were near a farm house occupied by an old man and his daughter-in-law, who was enciente. The old man's son was in the Southern army, and some of Kirk's men had an old grudge against him. In they went, forced this sick woman to cook their supper for them, and after they had eaten nearly all the provisions there was in the house, they carried away the remainder and also all the wearing apparel, both male, female, and infant's. Returning, they took all the crockery, the cradle and bedsteads, and with their sabres cut upon the beds and scattered the contents throughout the house and yard. Not a pane of glass, not an ear of corn, not a mouthful to eat or a rag to protect from the cold weather was left the old man and his daughter. Colonel Kirk was ordered to make an examination and report the men who did the damage under arrest. He never could find them—on the contrary, tried to extenuate their conduct by saying "it was just the way to serve rebels."

This is but one of many instances of barbarity, and it might be said murder (for it was soon followed by the death of both the father and his daughter and new born babe,) which could be related. Such is the character of the ignorant, drunken, cruel Commander-in Chief Kirk, who is intrusted with the execution of the mandates of Governor Holden in resisting the execution of the civil law of the land and the decision of the courts.

A FRENCH VIVANDIERE.

A correspondent of the London Telegraph, writing from Paris, thus describes a French vivandiere:

Yesterday, as a regiment of the line was marching through the Faubourg St. Antoine, the crowd espied the vivandiere bringing up the rear of the battalion in a vehicle remarkably like a washer-woman's cart—the chubby horse attached to which she was driving with her own fair hands, which were as brown as berries. The cart was as full as a steward's cabin on board a steam packet with good things, from Lyons saussages to Brandy, from sardines to Kirschenwasser. There are not many florists' shops in the Faubourg St. Antoine; but in the twinkling of an eye the crowd began to pelt the little woman in the cart with bouquets, and great hulking fellows in blouses came forward to the shafts to pat the horse and shake the vivandiere's hand. She took off her little glazed hat—a man of war's man's hat, with a broad brim and a low crown, decked with tri colored ribbons, and beneath which, I grieve, for the sake of the picturesque, to say that she wore a mob cap—and cried out, "Vive l' Empereur! vive la France!" in a voice so gruff that it would have done honor to a drum major. A kindly hearted little woman tois, for in the front of the cart were at least seventy knapsacks which she was carrying for the rank and file—probably her regimental pets. A gallant little woman, assuredly, and with a stirring history of her own, perhaps. Her grandmother marched into Grand Cairo, and when the battle day was done administered comfort from her brandy keg to those who lay fainting in the Pyramid. Her mother marched into Madrid, into Rome, into Vienna, into Berlin. She kindled her short pipe from the smoking embers of the Kremlin, and was bayonetted by a Prussian in the bloody fight from Waterloo; and the vivandiere herself has been at the Malakoff, at Magenta, at Solferine, at Puebla. I fancy that I saw her there, with her brown face and twinkling black eyes, driving her little wain as cheerily as now. Why not? Who does not remember Beranger's stirring refrain, "Rataplan, plan, plan! Soldats, voila Catin!" And Catin, the cantiniere, is the only woman, I take it, who is not out of place on a battle-field.

The individual who was hanging in suspense was a horse thief.

WITH THE VIEW OF PREPARING BOYS for the Senior Classes in the University of Virginia, one year has been added to the former course of study.

The present scholastic year of the School will close the 20th May, 1871, with a vacation of four weeks in December. Students remaining over, may prosecute their studies in the Winter vacation without any additional charge for tuition.

The principal is assisted by Mr. Frank W. Christian, of Richmond, a graduate of the University of Virginia in the Schools of Latin, Greek German, Mathematics and Moral Philosophy. Mr. Christian comes highly recommended by the faculty of the University, and has been a successful teacher in the "Episcopal High School of Virginia" near Alexandria.

The charge for board and tuition, exclusive of lights and washing, is $140 per term of twenty weeks. Students are charged only from the time of admission, and none are admitted but those wishing to pursue the regular course of study.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR

THURSDAY, AUGUST 11, 1870.

ARRESTS AND HABEAS CORPUS.

The illegal arrests of Mr. Turner, and other citizens by order of Gov. Holden, is producing a wide-spread indignation all over the State and throughout the Union. Every hour almost we are asked, "when will Mr. Turner return?" "when will the arrested persons be relieved?" We cannot give a positive answer to this question.—It requires time to execute the writ of habeas corpus, especially when resisted.—Sufficient time must be given to Kirk to make his return. If he should determine to obey the writ, the parties arrested will be brought before Judge Brooks at once.—But if Gov. Holden hesitates or waits to obtain re-assurances of support from President Grant, Judge Brooks will call upon the U. S. government to execute the processes promptly. This will undoubtedly be done.

We know not what importance to attach to the rumors we have heard. The bitterness and braggadocio spirit of the Standard of yesterday amounts to nothing. The mendacity of that print is so palpable, it is difficult for us to believe it, even when it makes a statement approaching to truth or probability. Our impression however is, that after a little vaporing and a pretensious show of mock dignity and determination, Gov. Hov. Holden will surrender the arrested persons, without the interference of the U. S. troops. This he is advised to do, we understand, and a further show of resistance on his part will confirm many persons in the opinion that he is really demented, or that his chargin and malice will drive him into further ruin.

The developments which have been made, go to prove that his whole scheme, was concocted in the most consummate baseness and hostility to law and to peace—that the plot entered into by Holden, Pool, Settle and others both here and at Washington, is treason against the State, had little foundation in the pretended outrages of Ku Klux, but in a deliberate purpose to force our people into open war against the government, to prevent an election and thus to force upon Congress the task of reconstructing the State again. But the good sense, moderation and moral courage of our people on Thursday last rebuked during the entire conflict, have completely foiled the vile purposes of the contemptible scapegraces engaged in it, and will work their utter ruin, politically, morally and socially. The parties engaged in this nefarious scheme, can never regain the confidence nor respect of our people, and while we are not disposed to violent or harsh measures of punishment, they should never find a place for repentance in the minds of the people, "though they seek it carefully with tears." These men and their abettors, and we include in this their advisers and defenders, as well as their apologists of the Supreme Court, merit the perpetual scorn and contempt of the people. A more lawless, wicked and demoniacal plot was never before concocted anywhere—never were the State and National Constitutions more flagrantly violated, or the peace and quiet of a State more madly jeoparded.

The further investigation of all these matters will confirm the public, that there are no grounds of justification or palliation for the conduct of Holden and his clan. As against the arrested, no proof of guilt of the high crimes alledged will be elicited, and in Mr. Turner's case it will be shown that as against him, his arrest was prompted solely by a mean, low, personal and political malice and the chagrin and resentment produced by his bold exposures of Holden and his clique.

MASS JUBILEE.

Many of our friends are in favor of a mass jubilee to celebrate the grand Conservative Democratic victory in the State. The occasion is an extraordinary one, and we are inclined to the opinion that something of the sort would be not only admissible, but quite appropriate; but if it will not be considered presumptuous in us, we would suggest, that the matter be postponed until all the returns are in and Mr. Turner and the other prisoners shall be released from Holden's bastile, or "hung in the Wake jail yard," as Holden and the Standard has so often threatened that Mr. Turner should be. We, the locum tenens, feel that we should like to see Mr. Turner present and enjoying, as he certainly would enjoy, the glory of a grand jubilee.

We would further suggest that the festivities of the occasion consist of an extensive barbecue in some pleasant grove in or near the city, accompanied by appropriate speeches, and a grand illumination and torch light procession at night, with speeches at Tucker Hall. We make these suggestions subject to amendment or entire change according to the judgment of our friends.

ELECTION RETURNS.

Caldwell county gives Shipp 637, Phillips 251; Congress, Harper, D., 669, Jones, R., 256; Senate, Council, D., 663, Taylor, R., 251; House, Ed. Jones, D., 699, Isbell, Ind., 437. All Conservative County officers elected, nearly without opposition.

Watauga gives a Conservative majority of about 300.

In Carteret all Conservative County officers elected but one Commissioner.

ALAMANCE AND CASWELL.

It is due to the patriotic and law-abiding people of Alamance and Caswell to say, that amidst the exciting, provoking and illegal arrest of many of their best citizens by Kirk and his men acting under Holden's order, they have exhibited great moderation and prudence. Most of them manifest a just indignation at the outrages committed upon them, but bear themselves with manly fortitude for the sake of peace. A few of them unused to such outrages and ignorant what might become of it, have exhibited a timidity and fear under the pressure of force, disreputable to their manhood, but the Scotts, the Hunters, the Moores, the Irelands, the Murrays, the Headshaws, the Wilsons, the Mebanes, the Binghams, the Holts and the great mass of the people of Alamance, and the Kerr's, the Hills, the Roans, the Bowes, the Wileys, the Griffiths, the Gravesses, the Thompsons, the Joneses and the great majority of the people of Caswell, have shown no trepidation or criminal cringing to a set of lawless brigands who sought to disturb them.

Disclosures said to have been made by some under the influence of fear and by means which the public shall know, as soon as we can obtain the facts, should be received with great allowance. We still hold to the opinion that no single fact affecting the characters of the arrested parties, has yet been brought out worthy of consideration. When these men are at liberty to testify under oath before the civil authorities, without constraint, we believe no serious charge will be sustained against any respectable citizen.

The result of the election in these Counties is not as unfavorable to the Democratic Conservative party as we anticipated.—Enough is known to satisfy us that every Conservative candidate would have been elected in both Counties, but for the interference of Gov. Holden's State Troops. If, as Holden alledges, the people of these Counties were in a state of insurrection, so as to require martial law, and denied the right of habeas corpus, and if, as Judge Pearson affirms, all the people of those Counties were insurgents, they were incapable of any civil act, much more the exercise of the highest right of freemen, the elective franchise. The elections therefore in those Counties are clearly null and should be pronounced so by the General Assembly.

FROM YANCEYVILLE.

We received a letter from Mrs. Turner at Yanceyville, this morning, from which we make the following extract:

"Kirk says Mr. Turner has insulted him several times, and he don't care to show him, (Mr. T.) any civility. Yesterday I started on my walk to look at him, and perhaps get a word with him through the window; Mr. Henderson was with me and I asked him to speak and send up for me some ale I had brought for Mr. Turner.—The corporal asked if I was Mr. Turner's wife. Mr. H. answered that I was, and I said, at the same time, "tell the 'king' that the 'queen' sent it." The corporal then said, "look here; none of your d—d impudence here; if you don't mind I will not take it at all."

"We then walked round and I saw Mr. T. at the window. He said he had sent the SENTINEL and an important note to me.—We went to the gate and Mr. Henderson inquired for them. The corporal asked if they were for himself; he answered, "no, they are for Mrs. Turner." "Well, I shan't get them, for Mrs. Turner intruded on me and insulted me, I won't do a thing for her," said this majestic military official.—Gentlemanly, wasn't it? And when I went to look for a waist ribbon for one of the soldiers' gals, he, the corporal, followed me and every way I turned he would face me. It was all I could do to keep Mr. Henderson quiet, although a one-legged Confederate soldier; but I did keep him quiet and we got away and left the corporal to digest his 'insult' and his 'intrusion.'"

We learn from a private source that the citizens of Yanceyville and surrounding country furnish the prisoners with every comfort and convenience they require.—Many of the prisoners—those who are well informed in regard to their rights—openly defy Kirk and the unlawful manner in which they have been dealt with. Mr. Turner, we are sure, will receive no overtures from them. He knows the time will come when they will have to answer for the outrage committed on him. They will get their deserts.

NORTHERN OPINION.

We are told that when some one intimated to Gov. Holden a few days ago, that if the Democrats elected a two thirds majority in the General Assembly, he might expect to be impeached, he replied, "Well then, they would make me Vice President of the U. S." We know not that he ever used the expression, but it is like him, and the remark is a true index of himself and party. Their measure of greatness or of good morals, is determined by the quid pro quo. They are reckless as to their moral standing, reckless of their social position, nay, willing to be damned morally and socially, provided, they can get money or position that is money's worth.

The effect of Holden's recent conduct in this State we observe, is the subject of general and condemnatory remark by the press at the North. A gentleman just returned from the Northwest, says, that he is condemned in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Missouri, by the Republican and the Democratic newspapers and by gentlemen of all parties. They consider that his illegal, unreasonable and wicked course if followed, will prostrate the Republican party in the country. This looks very little like his reaching the Vice Presidency soon! Indeed, his utter incompetancy would be sufficient to keep him out of the Vice Presidency, if nothing else. He has made so poor a Governor, the people will let him slide.

On the day of election at Winton, Hertford County, a white man named Parker was fatally shot by a white man named Hayes. Hayes succeeded in making his escape.

WHAT HOLDEN USED TO SAY ABOUT HABEAS CORPUS.

From the Weekly Standard, Feb. 3rd, 1864.

CONGRESS.

* * * We have various rumors in regard to the proposed suspension of habeas corpus. It is stated in one breath that no act suspending the writ can or will be passed, and that one-half the delegation from this State will vote for it.

We earnestly hope that the effort to suspend this great privilege will fail, and that all the members from this State will be found on the side of civil liberty against untrammelled military power. We know something of the temper of the people of North Carolina; and if we were an enemy to the Confederate government, as we are not, we could desire no more effectual means for destroying it than the suspension of this writ and the consequent declaration of martial law. We implore the Congress to act with moderation and discretion. There is no disaffection in this State, we are sure, which requires so stringent and arbitrary a measure as the one referred to.

From the Weekly Standard, Feb. 17th, 1864.

One of the effects of the suspension of habeas corpus would most probably be the temporary extinction of the Conservative press. An Editor, with a proper conception of his responsibilities and duties in a country like this, will not speak at all unless permitted to speak freely and boldly. But the suspension will afford a harvest and a season of rejoicing to the supple and unscrupulous tools of arbitrary power.—They will exult while the people will mourn.

From the Weekly Standard, Feb 24th, 1864.

HABEAS CORPUS SUSPENDED.—It seems to be understood that the late Congress of the Confederate States, a short time before it adjourned, suspended the writ of habeas corpus, and thus humbly laid the liberties of the people at the feet of the President. After which they ordered prayers to be said on the 8th day of April next. Let the vote on suspending the writ be published.

From the Weekly Standard, June 1st, 1864.

HABEAS CORPUS IN THE HOUSE.—On Monday last the resolution of Mr. Foote, in favor of repealing the act suspending the writ of habeas corpus, was laid upon the table by a vote of 57 to 24, the yeas and nays called for by Dr. J. T. Leach.

YEAS.—Messrs. Aiken, Anderson, Atkins, Barksdale, Blandford, Boyce, Bradley, Branch, T. M. Bruce, B. W. Bruce, Chambers, Chilton, Chrisman, Clopton, Colliver, Conrad, Dejarnette, Dickinson, Dupre, Echols, Foster, (Funster, Gaither, A. H. Garland, Hanly, Hartridge, Heiskill, Hilton, Holliday, Johnston, Keeble, Lyon, Machem, McCallum, McMullen, Menees, Miles, Miller, Montague, Moore, Perkins, Pugh, Read, Russel, Sexton, Shewmake, Singleton, J. M. Smith, W. E. Smith, Staples, Swan, Tripiett, Villere, Welch, Whitfield, Witherspoon, Mr. Speaker.—57.

NAYS.—Messrs. Ayer, Baldwin, Bell, Crulkshank, Farrow, Foote, Fuller, Gholson, Gilmer, Holder, Lamkin, J. M. Leach, J. T. Leach, Lester, Logan, Marshall, Murray, Orr, Ramsay, Rives, Rodgers, Simpson, Smith, of North Carolina, and Turner—24.

THE NORTH CAROLINA ELECTION TO DAY.

The lawlessness and other abominations that have prevailed in North Carolina for some time past reach a focus to-day in the election for members of Congress and State officers. Our correspondents have already given full details of the anomalous condition of things in the State, together with descriptions of the candidates and other particulars; therefore further comments at this time are superfluous. But the result of the election to day will be regarded with some curiosity, as showing how the experiment of declaring certain parts of a State in a condition of insurrection may work in view of the political advantages that may accrue to the party that makes such a declaration. Governor Holden has the merit—if any merit be attached to the operation—of allying the bullet to the ballot in a time of general peace, and it will be no wonder if the polls in North Carolina be a little too much "protected" to-day to allow a full and fair expression of public sentiment. The republicans will, therefore, probably carry their State ticket and elect most of their candidates for Congress, including one negro. But, whichever way the State goes, for heaven's sake let the reign of terrorism and bloodthirstiness in the name, but in defiance of the law, cease forever.—N. Y. Herald.

The Richmond Dispatch alluding, to the late action of Chief Justice Pearson regarding the Alamance and Caswell prisoners, uses the following rather hard language about our Chief Justice. Says the Dispatch:

"Holden is a hardened villain—a bold, unblushing violator of the Constitution and shedder of innocent blood; yet he is a better character than Chief Justice Pearson, who is simply a contemptible, cowardly tool of a tyrant."

Holden should at once send his militia over to Richmond and capture that Editor. —Roanoke News.

MODERATE CIRCUMSTANCES,
and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.
The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a guarantee which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.
☞ Hitherto, I have been represented in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stockholders alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted, claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, but to an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.
Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.
The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the business forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

THANKS, MANY THANKS.

Our subscription lists, within the last week, have increased more rapidly than at any former period, owing to the active sympathy of warm, personal and political friends. The following note speaks for itself; we thank the friends of the Sentinel and of Mr. Turner, for this tangible manifestation of their good will. Additional names will be received at club rates.

Tarboro', N. C., Aug. 9, 1870.

Editor Raleigh Sentinel:

Dear Sir: Enclosed I send you (55) fifty five names in a club for your Weekly paper—the bearer of this will pay you the money. I wish to know if I should get more subscribers, if they can come in at club rates. I think I will be able to get as many more subscribers in less than two weeks. The whole heart of Edgecombe goes out in sympathy for the gallant and noble defender of our rights who is now imprisoned by order of W. W. Holden.—May the day soon come when Mr. Josiah Turner, Jr., shall occupy the place now filled by a "Judas Iscariot."

Yours respectfully,

H. C. B.

Tearing Down and Rebuilding.—The old squatty wood shanty, north of the Yarborough House, purchased sometime since by Mr. W. C. Stronach, has gone the way of all old fogies, to make room for a modernized and respectable looking edifice. The workmen have been busy taking it down, to day, and soon its place will be occupied by a brick building. We hope to see the other antediluvian rat dens adjoinining subjected to a similar "course of sprouts" at no distant day. Why should not the owners rebuild and bring them up to the value set on them by our sapient city assessors? In their present condition they are certainly not worth the value put on them for taxation.

Mail Delinquencies.—For the last few days complaints have poured in from all quarters from subscribers, who say they do not get their papers. We know that the fault does not lie with us, and we do not believe it lies with the Post-office at Raleigh. Our mails are regularly and promptly put up and sent to the Post-office here, and we believe as promptly sent to the Mail Agents on the Railroads. The offices from which complaints come, and the great demand for the Sentinel during the last week, induce us to believe the delinquency lies with some one or more of the Mail Agents. No agent has a right to open a package, nor to delay it behind the regular course of mail, and unless this thing is stopped we shall compain to the Department giving facts and names. In order that we may reach the root of this evil we ask our subscribers to notify us immediately of every failure to get their papers in due time, naming the date of the paper missed.

Fine Peaches.—We are indebted to Capt. C. B. Harrison for specimens of as fine peaches as we have seen anywhere.—They are of the Chinese cling, lemon cling, admirable clingand Devereux freestone.—Capt. Harrison informs us that he has nurseries of these and several other kinds, of several thousands each, and also of apples, pears, osage orange, which will be for sale the coming Fall and Spring.

A Vegetable Curiosity.—We have on our table an Irish potato, dug from the garden of Mr. George Lougee, of this city, which a root of wire-grass has penetrated, growing entirely through it, to the length of over six inches. How the soft, tender growing root of the wire grass could push its way through the body of the potato is something we cannot understand, but that it did so, there can be no doubt.

Funeral.—The large concourse of citizens who attended the funeral to-day of that excellent lady, Mrs. Eliza Selby, wife of T. H. Selby, Esq., fully attested their high appreciation of her many virtues and the deep sense of loss which pervades the community at her lamented death. The services were conducted by the Pastor, Rev. J. M. Atkinson, assisted by Rev. Wm. E. Pell and Rev. Mr. Daily, of the Methodist Church.

Sound Logic for the Sick.

The invalid has often good reasons to exclaim, "save me from my friends.' As a general thing, each of them will have a different medicine to propose, and if he follows all their prescriptions in turn, their well meant advice may be the death of him. The only sensible course in any case of sickness is to resort promptly to a specific which has stood the test of a long and widely extended public experience, and obtained on solid and sufficient grounds the reputation of a Standard Remedy. This rank among the restoratives of our day belongs of right, and beyond all dispute, to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Let those who are taking it at this debilitating season as an invigorant answer for themselves as to its tonic properties. Can any dyspeptic who has ever used it, question the superiority as a stomachic over every other medicine? Can any person of bilious habit, who has ever taken it for liver complaint doubt its efficiency? It is believed among the tens of thousands who are now using, or have heretofore used it as an alterative and corrective, not one can be found who would exchange it for any other preparation in the known world. For intermittent fevers, nervous debility, constipation sick stomach, and all complaints arising from indigestion or imporerishment of the blood, it is the only article which can be conscientiously guaranteed, and no one who is thoroughly acquainted with its virtues will allow interested dealers in worthless slops, on which they make a larger profit, to furnish them in the place of the great vegetable restorative.

JUDGE BROOKS AND THE WRITS OF HABEAS CORPUS.

The writs of habeas corpus, which were issued to Col. Kirk by Judge Brooks a few days ago, were served upon him by Deputy Marshal Foote on Monday last. The service having been made, he said to Major Foote that he was a subordinate officer, and that he must consult Gov. Holden.

We understand that there is an impression among the State officials that Col. Kirk has twenty days within which to make his return upon the writs to Judge Brooks.—This is a mistake, as will be seen by the following extract from the Act of Congress of 1867 ch. 28. "Said writ shall be directed to the person in whose custody the party is detained, who shall make return of said writ and bring the party before the Judge who granted the writ, and certify the true cause of the detention of such person within three days thereafter, unless such person be detained beyond the distance of twenty miles; and if beyond the distance of twenty miles, and not above one hundred miles, then within ten days; and if beyond the distance of one hundred miles then within twenty days." As Yanceyville, the place where the parties are detained, is within less than one hundred miles from Salisbury where the writs are to be returned, Col. Kirk must make his return to, and carry the bodies of the prisoners before Judge Brooks at Salisbury within ten days or be liable to an attachment for a contempt for failing to do so.

TAKE CARE.

The act of Congress under which Judge Brooks has issued the writs of habeas corpus among other things prescribes as follows:

"And if any person or persons to whom such writ of habeas corpus may be directed shall refuse to obey the same, or shall make a false return thereto, in addition to the remedies already given by law, he or they shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall on conviction before any Court of competent jurisdiction, be punished by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars and by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by either according to the nature and aggravation of the case."

We are informed that some fifty or more writs have been issued, and just so many indictments in the District or Circuit Court of the United States may be found against Kirk and all his aiders and abettors, even the Governor included; a pretty fearful business, when it is remembered that the process from a United States Court, runs to any part of the United States, and though Kirk, Bergen, Douglass & Co. may leave North Carolina the arm of the United States will be found to be long enough to reach them and bring them to justice.

Verily, the way of the transgressor is hard. Let offenders against the majesty of the law take heed in time—they will not be able to screen themselves behind Chief Justice Pearson, even though he should be backed by all of his associates.

Music.—We intended last week, on its first insertion to call particular attention to the card of Mrs. W. J. Young, proposing to take one or more classes in music for a session of five months, at her residence, corner Fayetteville and Davie streets. It would be superfluous to say anything in the way of commendation of Mrs. Young as a musician. Music is her element and her long and successful practice as a teacher, gives her qualifications surpassed by none and equalled by few. This offers an opportunity to those wishing to learn or improve themselves in music, rarely to be met with, especially as her terms are very moderate.

Lager.—Mr. Phil Thiem requests us to say that he has just received 100 kegs of A. No. 1 Cincinnati Lager, which he offers for sale, wholesale and retail, at his Exchange, Fayetteville street.

(From the Augusta Constitutionalist, July 29)

A MODEL JUDGE.

Chief Justice Pearson, of North Carolina, was once, we believe, rated as a man of honor, learning and moral courage.—But, having accepted the Radical situation early in the day, and, being penetrated with a lust of office, he has become that most abominable of degenerate dignitaries, a political jurist thoroughly subservient to usurping power. His master and patron, the infamous Gov. Holden, recently employed a ruffian named Kirk to stir up an insurrection in North Carolina, so that the Conservatives of the State should be cheated out of an election by the interposition of the United States authorities, backed up by a rowdy and mongrel militia. To effect his purpose, Kirk has, in defiance of law and order, without the shadow of justification, arrested and maltreated a large number of worthy persons in several counties. Finally, after much contemptuous treatment by Kirk, a hearing of their cases was had before Chief Justice Pearson. He has delivered an opinion which is an opinion. This venal Justice palliates the conduct of his brutal masters and seeks to excuse his own baseness for so doing.—While deciding that Holden is the sole judge of the insurrectionary condition of the county, Judge Pearson declares that he has no power to suspend the writ of habeas corpus. That's a fair show of independence, but see how subtly he evades the direct issue of filing and imprisoning the malefactor, Kirk, who, at the direction of Holden, has trodden habeas corpus under foot. The Judge says Kirk was obliged to obey the order of the Court, and likewise bound to obey the order of the Governor.—Having chosen to obey the Governor rather than the Court, ergo he is not culpable! The Judge goes on to show that he cannot order out the posse comitatus to enforce his writ, because the posse comitatus and the Governor's militia are one and the same thing, and would not respond to a judicial decree! See how this learned and upright Judge skulks behind the shadow of a great name, in the following concluding sentences of his opinion:

"The writ will be directed to the Marshal of the Supreme Court, with instructions to exhibit it and a copy of this opinion to his Excellency the Governor. If he orders the petitioner to be delivered to the marshal, well; if not, following the example of Chief Justice Taney, in Merrimon's case (Annual Cyclopædia for the year 1861, page 555,) I have discharged my duty, the power of the judiciary is exhausted, and the responsibility must rest on the Executive."

TELEGRAPHIC.

Wednesday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, August 10.—Attorney General Ackerman has addressed a letter to certain Republicans in Georgia who have requested his views on the subject of an election in that State. He declines to give a construction of the act of Congress relating to Georgia; but on the assumed ground that the question is for the decision of the Legislature. He is in favor of an election and against the extension of the terms of State officers. In a party view he thinks the republican party will be more hurt by preventing than by holding the election; but if it were otherwise he would not sacrifice principle to success. He desires every precaution against unfairness, and should the election be unfair would have it set aside.

Rear Admiral S. P. Lee, succeeds Admiral Porter in command of the North Atlantic fleet.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Philadelphia, August 10.—Dr Thomas, physician at Lazzaretto, died this morning. This is the fourteenth case of yellow fever since the arrival of the bark "Home."

FOREIGN.

London, August 10.—The following is the Queen's speech delivered to-day by royal commission upon the occasion of the prorogation of Parliament:

My Lords and Gentlemen:—The state of public business enables me to release you from attendance upon Parliament. I continue to receive from all foreign powers assurances of their good will and friendship; but I have witnessed with great pain and grief on both domestic and foreign grounds, the recent outbreak of war between two powerful nations allies to this country. My best exertions have been used to avert this great calamity. I shall now direct an anxious attention to the strict observance of the duties and rights of neutrality. I have consequently exercised to maximize instructed by your wish not to enlarge the powers of the executive, and only for the discharge of international duties, but for the prevention of acts injurious to the interests of this country. I shall use every endeavor to check the operations of causes leading to the enlargement of the area of the conflict and shall contribute, if opportunity offer, to the restoration of an early and honorable peace. I have tendered to the Powers treaties identical in form which will give an additional security to Belgium against the hazard of war on her frontier. A treaty has been signed by Count Bernstoff for the North German federation, and the French envoy has signified that he assents to sign a corresponding instrument, and the recipient of full power, therefore, from other powers, parties to the treaty, has been invited, and they are likely to accede to the engagement.

Shocking murders in Greece have produced painful impressions in Europe, and I have drawn attention to the serious evils existing in that country. My unremitting efforts will be directed to secure complete and searching enquiry into the facts.

Gentlemen of the House Commons:—I thank you for the liberal provisions made by you for the ordinary service of the year and for additional supplies of men and money voted in view of the altered circumstances of the continent. The revenue gives promise to meet the charges thus created without revision in the proper balance of revenue and expenditure.

The acts for the repression of agrarian crime and to maintain order in Ireland has answered its purposes thus far. From the act requiring the occupation of land, I anticipate the restoration of peaceful relations between landlords and tenants, and of confidence and benevolence. The legislative duty of protecting life and property I hope is now more easy, and I rely on the loyalty and affection of my Irish subjects.

I have been pleased to concur in a bill for national education in England—a new guarantee for the moral and social well being of the nation and its prosperity and power.

The naturalization act and that for the extradition of criminals tend to strengthen our friendly relations with other powers. The act regulating enlistments for short terms I hope will increase the effective force, promote the welfare of the soldier, and provide for the nation a reserve well trained to arms and ready on emergency to return to their standard.

I bid you farewell for the recess with an earnest prayer that when again summoned, I may rejoice with you in the re-establishment of peace in Europe.

London, August 10.—Prussia is organizing a volunteer naval force.

It is rumored that the Prince Imperial will be at the French embassy to-morrow. Other reports assert that Louis is here already.

The Saturday's disasters are attributed to the Emperor's incapacity.

The Prussian advance is obstructed by the village being filled with French wounded.

The French losses exceed all estimates. The Prussians took multitudes of prisoners. The rumors of naval battles are false.

The French continue concentrating on the roads to Paris. All that region is in a state of seige. It is said that after the battle of the 6th the French abandoned the works in the greatest confusion. An inefficient effort was made to check the Prussian advance at Nicodemi, which place was taken by the Bavarians. The French continued the retreat towards Bicha, the cavalry picked up scores of prisoners. The line of retreat was covered with dead and wounded.

The Prussians entered Hagueneau early on the 7th and soon occupied Saargemund.

The Prince Imperial has arrived with the Emperor's confidential agent and Eugenie's jewels.

A dispatch from Hong Kong says that on the 21st of July the French Consulate at Canton was attacked by the rabble and the Consul compelled to seek protection under the British flag. Foreigners generally are threatened.

Paris, August 10.—It is proposed to call to arms at a moment's notice, to take the field, all unmarried men of the military classes of 1868, 1869 1860, 1862 and 1863.

After the session of the Corps Legislatif this evening, the Deputies were unable to pass pont concorde, because of the great crowd on place de kion concorde.

Ollivier has lived at his private residence during the last three days, instead of occupying the official palace.

The Princes Clotilde and children returned from London to Paris.

All correspondents of the Paris journals for whose safety fears have been entertained arrived from the frontier, excepting M. De Kalton of the Gaulois, who is still missing. The Senate will reassemble to-day at 9 o'clock a. m. to vote on the proposition made yesterday, in the Corps Legislatif, and will discuss progress for the safety of the State.

Thursday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, August 11.—Farragut is sinking.

FOREIGN.

Paris, August 11.—In the Corps Legislatif to-day the credit of four million of francs for the families of the "Moodle Garde," was increased to twenty five millions. Cremeux submitted a proposition that commercial contracts failing due between the present date and the 30th of August be prolonged for one month. Jules Brame protested against the measure, and Cremeux and Jules Simon insisted upon its necessity, saying that to defend the country the public mind must be free of care. The project was voted. The circulation around the Hall outside was by this time stopped by the crowd, and several detachments of troops surrounded the building. The masses, however, were not disorderly. The project of the law for national defense was adopted unanimously amid prolonged applause. In the excitement a voice was heard "now let Prussia look us in the face." Count Palikao was announced for the new ministry and read a list of the names as follows: Count Palikao Minister of war; De La Tour La Avergne, Minister of Foreign Affairs; Henri Chareau, Minister of the Interior; Grand Perret, Minister of Justice; De Gannilly, Minister of the Marine; Pierre Magne, Minister of Finance; Jerome Davis, Minister of Public Works; Jules Brame, Minister of Instruction; Clement Duvernois, Minister of Commerce; Busson Billault, President of the Council of State. The Emperor visited Cantonments of the army around Metz.

The "Journal Officiel" has advices from Metz up to 4:30 yesterday evening. The details of the battle of Froeschwiller are still meagre. Marshal McMahon had his horse killed under him. A brigade of cavalry of the reserve corps and one division of the corps of General Failly, arrived on the field at the close of the day and covered the retreat. The pursuit of the enemy was vigorous at first but soon became a mere reconnoisance. McMahon after being 25 hours in the saddle, passed the day, Sunday, at St. Averne, which was abandoned afterwards, and occupied by the Prussians. Some of their advance pickets came up with our rear guard, but were driven back without much difficulty.

There was only six votes against the censure of Ollivier's ministry.

London, August 11.—Advices from the Prussian front up to 10 o'clock Wednesday night state that the French army is falling back to the line of Moselle, harrassed by the Prussian cavalry which had already passed Sarrunoer, Falquamont and Lasctanges. Stores of all kinds and railway trains had fallen into the hands of the Prussians. They had taken the small fortress of Hunigsteirn on the Vosges, which the French had evacuated, leaving guns and provisions.

How to cure it.

At the commencement of the Diarrhœa, which always precedes an attack of the Cholera, take a teaspoonful of the Pain Killer in sugar and water, (hot, if convenient) and then bathe freely the stomach and bowels with the Pain Killer clear. Should the Diarrhœa or cramps continue, repeat the dose every ten or fifteen minutes until the patient is relieved. In extreme cases, two or three teaspoonfuls may be given at a dose.

The Pain Killer, as an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of cholera, Summer Complaints, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Asthma, cures in one night by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to Old Sores, Burns, Scalds, and Wounds. For Sick Headache and Toothache, don't fail to try it. In short, it is a Pain Killer.

Directions in company each bottle.

The Pain Killer is sold by all dealers in Medicines.

Prices, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 per bottle.

SEND YOUR ORDERS IN TIME.—

The "Utley Cotton Press."

So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my agents Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

THOS. H. BRIGGS.

Read Certificates below.

Pittsboro', N. C., May 6th, 1870.

T. H. Briggs, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612). I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.

Yours truly,
C. W. BYNUM.

Fayetteville, N. C., April 16th, 1870.

Mr. Thomas H. Briggs: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the one upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully,
JAS. H. WILDER.

River Laws, Cumberland Co., N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

Thos. H. Briggs, Esq: Dear Sir:—In reply to yours of the 13th making how I was pleased with the Utley Press I used last season, I would say that it gave entire satisfaction.

Respectfully yours,
CHAS. H. BLOCKER

Hillsboro', N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

Thos. H. Briggs, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Sir—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling hay for some months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Hay Press I have seen.

Respectfully,
E. H. POOLE.

Raleigh, N. C., June 18th, 1870.

T. H. Briggs, Esq., Raleigh N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton, also others crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it a perfect in all respects to any I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

Yours truly,
W. T. BOWLY.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (cash assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than Thirteen Million Dollars.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after they once begin to pay them at all; but they do not begin to pay until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!

WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!

OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!

No more Smoke!—No more Grease!

No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1865.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

A. BALDING'S

PATENT GLASS SUBMERGED

DOUBLE-ACTING FORCE PUMP.

SUBSTITUTE FOR A FIRE ENGINE.

THIS Pump will pump 30 gallons of water per minute, will never cut out the packing, has no friction, no water ever stands in its pipes to freeze, and is less liable to get out of order than any other pump now used. It can be set up in a short time by any ordinary mechanic.

The No. 2 pump for yard wells will be sold at from $20 to $30, capable of throwing 30 gallons of water per minute. The price of No. 2 for railroad stations, throwing 60 gallons per minute, will be given upon application.

Having the exclusive right to this pump for the states of North and South Carolina, and having established a factory for the manufacture of them at Wilson, N. C., I will receive orders for them at Wilson, and will ship them by Express C. O. D., or, if the money is sent me, by the regular freight. The number of feet in the depth of the well must be given in all cases

MR. J. L. KITCHIN:

DEAR SIR.—We certify that the "Balding Pumps" put up by you in the town of Scotland Neck are a perfect success. They pump very rapidly, and by attaching hose, will throw water from 40 to 60 feet and would prove invaluable in case of fire.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFF enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER, Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
